

Early Assistance in Ortenau District

Specialist units
for all mothers and fathers
with children aged 0 – 3

Our service

- Support and advice regarding questions about child development
- Reinforcement of the parent-child bond
- Mediation of assistance in stress situations
- Support and advice regarding questions about raising children
- Development-psychological advice

We work together with midwives and family midwives, birthing clinics, gynaecologists and paediatricians, advice units and other professional groups from the Early Assistance Network.

What is the Early Assistance Specialist Unit?

Your Early Assistance Specialist Unit particularly focuses on the needs of babies and toddlers and their mothers and fathers.

It offers clarification, information, advice, assistance and mediation from one source.

The service is voluntary, free of charge and confidential. It is available to all those living in the catchment area, regardless of religion or origin.

The Early Assistance Specialist Unit works in a straightforward way, and locally. We can also visit you in your own home.
